

A process for comparing income, principle and taxes of an existing trust and a proposed trust, and optionally converting to the proposed trust.